PREFACE

We are very happy to present this volume of the Descriptive Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts Vol. IX to the scholars of Oriental lore and Indian culture.

This volume includes the description of the manuscripts related to Jyotiṣa and Āyurveda, which belong to the library of the Vaidika Samshodhana Mandala, Pune. The presentation of this one line catalogue is based on the earlier pattern adapted by the VSM for Volumes I-VIII.

Manuscripts, using the language Marāṭhī and which have some speciality are indicated with a star-mark. Brief comments are given in the last column under Additional Particulars.

The manuscripts on Jyotiṣa branch of knowledge and entered in this volume include those related to allied branches of Jyotiṣa such as Almanac, Astronomy, Astrology, Horoscopy, Omens, Phalajyotiṣa, Gaṇita and only few have Vedāṅga Jyotiṣa as the subject.

Among our earlier publications of VSM, Descriptive Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts – Vol. I (Veda & Vedic), Vol. III (Upadhye collection) and Vol. VII (Deshpande collection) also include entries of the manuscripts related to Jyotiṣa. The scholars, interested in this topic, may refer to these catalogues also for their study.

Manuscripts having Āyurveda as a subject matter are comparatively less in number, which are listed from P. No. 162 onwards.

The manuscripts are arranged alphabetically according to the titles.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Bhagyalata Pataskar, Director, VSM for her constant encouragement to complete this volume.

Bhagyashree Bhagwat
